

Criteria for Annual Renewal of Accreditation

In order to maintain your status as an accredited member of BASRT you are required to comply with the following criteria. [Please see note below.]

1. Agree to abide by our Codes of Ethics and Principles of Good Practice for Members.
2. Have completed 16 hours of continuous professional development in the last year (see CPD policy). A minimum of eight hours of CPD must be relevant to sexual and relationship therapy.
3. Be a practitioner of sexual and relationship therapy, at least 100 hours of face to face work in the last year.
4. Have had no breaks in practice longer than three months.
5. Have adequate supervision for the caseload you carry (not less than one hour per month) (See Guidelines for Supervisors). To confirm this, your supervisor's signature is required.
6. Be adequately insured.
7. Sign a declaration.

NOTE

BASRT reserves the right to change any of the criteria required for annual renewal of accreditation and to audit the applications by requiring documentary evidence to be produced on request.
